Ari

To be clear your February 1 email suggested you wanted to wait on the IT consultant call until after you received further information from the Bank, which is exactly what we did.

And just a reminder that we didn't get your section of the last JSR until after 5 pm. That said if you want to file your own letter, so be it.

As for the remainder of your email, we disagree but will make our position clear in the JSR.

Thanks and have a great weekend.

Brett

 EXTERNAL MESSAGE

Brett,

We sent you our 8-page status report at 11:38 pm last night because (a) we wanted you to have it no later than first thing Friday morning and (b) you first agreed to schedule the IT conference we've been requesting since last December for 2 pm on the day before the joint status report was due. Our sections on both Defendant's paper records and ESI productions could not be completed until we knew whether the status of those issues had changed (they had not) and synthesized our notes after the conference yesterday.

That being said, given the importance of the issues raised and the length of the document, we certainly don't want to rush you and will instead file our letter separately. That will allow you to file your letter whenever it is ready without having to worry about further late-night exchanges of drafts and revisions.

Regards,

Ari Ungar

Aaron-

We are in receipt of your 8-page, single-spaced "status report", received at 11:38 pm last night. We will provide the Bank's portion at some point today, but most certainly not by 3 pm.
